

“The Golden Tiger is the only rail-trail I know of that is open to motorized use. Motorized use is not compatible with the primary recreation purposes of rail trails. Their wide surface and gentle curves allows motorized users to attain very high speeds”

Fred Wert

Author of “Washington’s Rail-Trails”

